Mother Teresa

Theme – Missionary

The object of this Treasure Hunt is to solve all the clues and find the Treasure! The clues point to the following locations:

Under the Red Box (Make a cardboard box and cover it with red paper)

Under the Dining Table (Hang the clues from under the table)

Inside the Bar (Set up a bar if you don't have one)

Under the Couch (Leave the clues loose under the couch)

Under the Lamp (Use a lamp with room underneath for the treasure)

The person who controls the Treasure Hunt is called the Hunt Master.

Hunt Master:

Cut up the clues, keeping the first ones, and leave them in order at the locations above. Decide on the treasure. This is something that can be hidden at the last location. You can use a box or bag filled with candy, coins, or coupons. It's a good idea to have consolation prizes as well. Since everyone will be directed to the same location, make sure there are enough copies of the clue at that location for those who are not first to arrive.

Designate Teams. The theme for the hunt is indicated above. You can name your teams accordingly or not name them at all. Distribute the first clue to the players or teams. You can deliver the first clue in a decorated envelope or in a box with a few prizes. Or you can read them the first clue.

Tell them to begin. Keep an eye on how each player or team is doing and provide help for those who fall behind. Let them know they can ask you for help.

Clue 3

Teresa opened her first hospice with help from Calcutta officials. She converted an abandoned Hindu temple into the Kalighat Home for the Dying, free for the poor, and renamed it Kalighat, the Home of the Pure Heart (Nirmal Hriday). Those brought to the home received medical attention and the opportunity to die with dignity in accordance with their faith: Muslims were read the Quran, Hindus received water from the Ganges, and Catholics received extreme unction. "A beautiful death", Teresa said, "is for people who lived like animals to die like angels—loved and wanted."

Count each letter from the beginning and insert the letters below:
